

Fall Guy

Fukasaku KINJI, 1982 / 109 min

Zenica City Museum - September 24, 2013 at 19:30h

FREE ENTRANCE

A movie studio in Kyoto, Mecca of Samurai pictures; present day. A famous star Ginshiro is playing the main role in the movie "Shinsen-gumi" which is now at the height of the shooting. However, Ginsihiro feels uneasy as he fears to be outrivalled by Tachibana, a rising new actor...

"Fall Guy" is a picturization of a very popular literature novel, depicting the inside story of a film studio with a comical touch, full of inventive and extraordinary ideas. The theme song entitled "Kamata Koshinkyoku" (The Kamata March), which is also the Japanese title of the film, was a tune popular in 1930s, bringing the nostalgic memories of the good old days when motion pictures were at their height.

Japanese Culture Month
Sept 12 - Oct 14, 2013
www.bosnia.emb-japan.go.jp